

Meditation Group for P.C.C.

This is the third year that the Meditation group has been running at Uplyme Church. Participants have been encouraged to lead the group this year to increase diversity. In addition, the session before Christmas was a Meditative walk around the church based on the 14thC text, The Cloud of Unknowing. It is hoped to provide another Meditative walk in July when Meditation breaks for the summer.